1989
Timeline of the Cancer Registry's work among offshore workers
2020
1989
The Oil Industry National Association (Norwegian Oil and Gas) commissions the Cancer Registry to map cancer among Offshore Workers.
1996-1998
"The offshore cohort" is established. Data collection on working conditions from 28 000 offshore workers.
2001
Publication of a report describing the implemetation of the datacollection (Strand and Andersens 2001).
2007
Mintry of Labor and Social Affairs (ASD) finances report on cancer incidence on the Norwegian continental shelf.
2009
Report describing work experience and education for the offshore cohort.
2009-2013
PETROMAKS1 finances a Ph.D and three studies are published by the doctoral work.
2013-2015
PETROMAKS2 finances two studies on skin cancer among Offshore workers.
2018-2022
PETROMAKS2 finances the work to update the cohort. new studies focusing on women, urinary and respiratory cancer.
2020-2024
PETROMAKS2 finances establishment of the Heliport-cohort and studies on cancer risk from benzene exposure after 1998.